

Annotation Assessment

Names of Article Annotators: _____

Names of Annotation Assessors: _____

The Annotation:

4 Exceeds the Standard	3 Meets the Standard	2 Approaches the Standard	1 Does Not Meet the Standard
Notes all rhetorical devices used, such as appeals to emotion, ethics or logic	Notes nearly all rhetorical devices used, such as appeals to emotion, ethics or logic throughout the piece	Notes some rhetorical devices used in the piece, such as appeals to emotion, ethics or logic	Fails to note many devices used in the piece, such as appeals to emotion, ethics or logic
Frequently notes numerous and varied elements of composition such as sentence structure; point-of-view; and purpose	Notes several elements of composition as sentence structure; point-of-view; and purpose throughout the piece	Notes some elements of composition as sentence structure; point-of-view.	Fails to note many elements of composition as sentence structure; point-of-view in the piece.
Notes all references and allusions; clearly understands all allusions	Notes many references and allusions; clearly understands all allusions throughout the piece	Notes all references and allusions in parts of the piece; may not clearly indicate the nature of the allusions noted	Fails to note many references and allusions in the piece; may not clearly indicate the nature of the allusions noted

Staple this sheet to the annotated articles and turn it all in.